

Practice Areas

Energy - natural gas, electric, power plant development, rate cases, proceedings before FERC and state utility commissions, conducting independent investigations

Alternative Energy - development of alternative energy projects including biomass, biogas, biodiesel production, cellulosic energy, closed and open-loop projects, solar, wind, hydro; permitting, negotiation of project and finance agreements, project finance closings

Administrative Law - administrative proceedings before federal, state and local agencies and boards, and appeals of those decisions in federal and state courts

Telecom and Cable - telecommunications and cable issues before the FCC and state utility commissions

Water Rights - federal hydropower licensing, water rights issues between various states, and disputes involving private property rights, recreation issues, and protection of the environment

General Corporate - drafting and negotiating corporate documents, resolving disputes

For more information, see Experience material